HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

EMORY WEBB FARM, BARN

HABS No. GA-39-B

Location: State Highway 3/U.S. Highway 19, Smithville, Sumter County, Georgia

Significance: The Emory Webb Farm is located on approximately eight hundred acres of farmland historically associated with two other farmhouses and the Webb family. This house is part of a National Register listed district, the Webb Family Farm, which consists of three historic farmhouses with their associated outbuildings and one non-historic house. The barn associated with the Emory Webb Farm is significant as an agricultural structure associated with a farm operated continuously by the same family since the early 1800s.

Description: The barn is a wood frame double crib with a hay loft clad with horizontal planking.

History: The Emory Webb barn was constructed in 1930.

Sources: The information was obtained from the National Register form for the Webb Family Farms.
